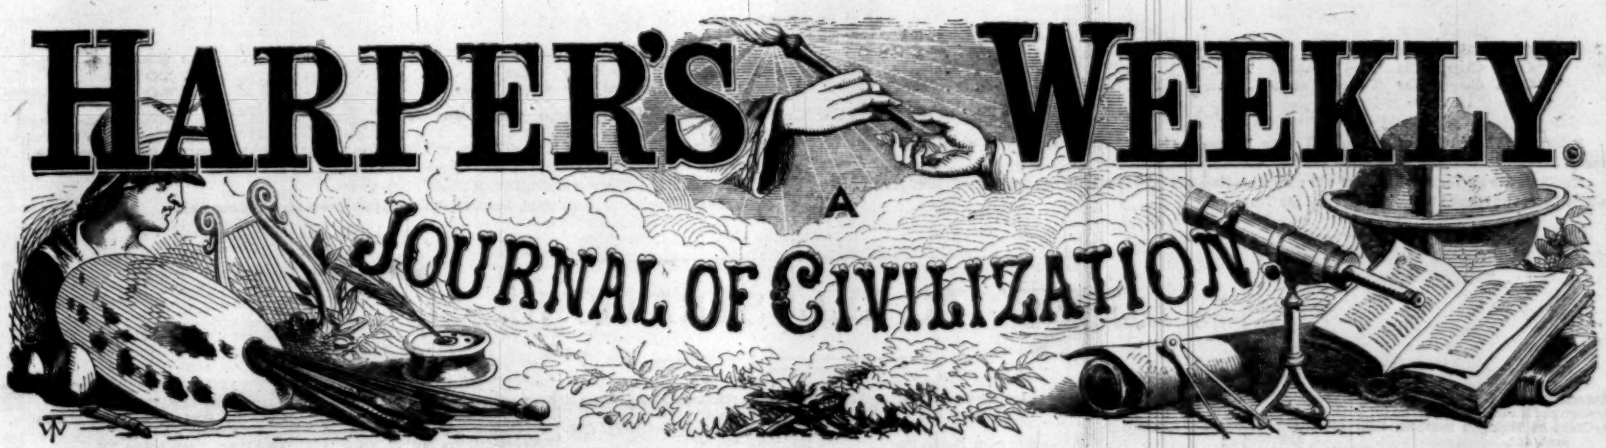
THE THIRD VOLUME

OF

HARPER'S WEEKLY.



THE YEAR 1859.

NEW YORK: HARPER & BROTHERS, PUBLISHERS,
FRANKLIN SQUARE.

THE PAST AND THE FUTURE.

THE First Number of the Fourth Volume of HARPER'S WEEKLY will appear on the 4th January, 1860. Last year over 4,500,000 Numbers of HARPER'S WEEKLY were sold, nearly half of which have been bound for reference. In commencing the New Volume, the Proprietors desire to state that the popularity which HARPER'S WEEKLY has attained will enable them to render it still more valuable in the future.

It has been their aim to render HARPER'S WEEKLY, in the first place, and before any thing else, A FIRST-CLASS NEWSPAPER—a Pictorial History of Current Events, equal to the daily press in fullness of description, and superior to the daily press as combining illustrations with text. How far they have attained their aim, the Three Volumes now published will show. The Illustrations in the Third Volume will bear evidence to the fidelity with which every important event of the past year has been related and illustrated in the pages of HARPER'S WEEKLY. They would refer especially, in this connection, to the Italian War, the Great Eastern Steamship, the Harper's Ferry Outbreak, the Utah Expedition, the Paraguay Expedition, China, etc. etc. The value of the paper can be best realized by supposing that it did not exist, and by trying to conceive how little people would really know of passing events if they had to rely on written descriptions alone. In this respect the arrangements for the coming year are more complete than they have been heretofore. HARPER'S WEEKLY has regular Artist Correspondents in almost every quarter of the globe, and is sure of promptly obtaining sketches of every leading event in which our countrymen are concerned. It commands the pencil of the first Artists at home; and, as in the case of the late outbreak at Harper's Ferry, can render its readers eye-witnesses of striking scenes wherever they occur. It will, moreover, in order to present its readers with a complete illustrated history of our age, continue to transfer to its pages the best and most generally interesting pictures from foreign illustrated journals, just as the daily papers transfer to their columns the articles in foreign newspapers. In a word, the Subscriber to HARPER'S WEEKLY may rely on finding in its pages next year an accurate, well-drawn, well-engraved, and well-printed picture of every memorable event which occurs, and a portrait of every man who attracts the general attention of the people of this country.

HARPER'S WEEKLY will continue, as heretofore, to publish the best Tales that are written by native and foreign Authors. It has already published A Tale of Two Cities, by CHARLES DICKENS (with Original Illustrations drawn for HARPER'S WEEKLY); What will he do with It? by Sir E. LYTTON BULWER; The Dead Secret, by WILKIE COLLINS; Lois the Witch, by Mrs. GASKELL; A Good Fight, by CHARLES READE. It is now publishing Trumps, by GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS, and The Woman in White, by WILKIE COLLINS. On, or before the conclusion of these Tales, others of equal merit will be commenced, it being the intention of the Publishers to secure every work of undoubted excellence that is written here or abroad. It is hardly necessary to add that the foreign Serials which appear in HARPER'S WEEKLY are purchased from their Authors by the Proprietors of HARPER'S WEEKLY, who, in many instances, give for a mere right of priority what amounts to a handsome copyright to the Author.

In addition to Serials, each Number of HARPER'S WEEKLY will contain a short, complete Tale by a native or foreign Author. In respect to these Tales, as with the Serials, the Publishers will publish the best that they can obtain, without regarding the origin. They are always ready to give the highest price for Original Matter; but they will not pass over a first-class Tale because it is foreign, in order to print an inferior one which happens to have been written at home.

The other departments of HARPER'S WEEKLY will continue to receive careful attention at the hands of the Publishers. They will endeavor to combine instruction with amusement, and grave counsel with light comment on the affairs of the day. HARPER'S WEEKLY is not designed to be, nor will it ever become, the organ of any party in politics, religion, or letters; but it will not ignore passing events, nor will it shrink from expressing its sentiments whenever, in the opinion of its Conductors, the interests of religion, truth, or the country are jeopardied.
